This certificate is issued to companies that applied for group membership, demonstrated full compliance with RSPO SCC and group requirements and were formally accepted as RSPO certified group member by Alioth (group manager) and its RSPO SCC certificate issuing accredited certification body. Registrations of new members are periodically processed by the Certification Body. A valid certificate of membership should, based on RSPO interpretations, therefore be considered as proof of a valid RSPO Supply Chain certification of the member. Validity of this certificate can only be verified through the website of Alioth. Visit: https://www.alioth-support.nl/diensten/palmolie/groepsleden for an up-to-date list of group members.
