FATHER MATTEO
Pier Giorgio. Andre?

PIER GIORGIO
Father Matteo. Where is my father?

FATHER MATTEO
Alfredo sent me, Pier Giorgio. He is... Upset that you've been arrested. He refused to come. He wants you to stay in prison over night to learn a lesson. He'll come tomorrow morning to bring you home.

PIER GIORGIO
He's not coming to take me out of here? Does he realize I saved Marco from getting beaten by the fascists?

FATHER MATTEO
He's at the paper covering the protests today. I'm sorry, Giorgio.

PIER GIORGIO
I understand, Father.

FATHER MATTEO
Do you need anything, Pier Giorgio?

PIER GIORGIO
Tell my mother I'm alright and that I'll be home tomorrow. I have my rosary to keep me company. There are worse places to be. I've always wondered what it was like for St. Paul to be locked in prison. Now I have an idea.

FATHER MATTEO
Take courage, Pier Giorgio. Shall we say the rosary together now?

PIER GIORGIO
Yes, please Father.

The Many Beggars