MONTHLY LIFE APP

KINDNESS—

Showing others they are valuable by how you treat them

BASIC TRUTH

I should treat others the way I want to be treated

SUMMARY

We finish the month with a familiar parable found in Luke 10:25-37. When the religious leaders tried to make themselves look good, they try and trick Jesus with a question. If we're supposed to love our neighbor as we love ourselves, who exactly is our neighbor? Jesus answers with the parable of The Good Samaritan. Jesus used this story to completely change how people who follow Him should look at showing kindness to others—it's not just for people we know or like, but for everyone we meet.

Bottom Line: Be kind to people who are different from you.

Everyone is deserving of our kindness, whether they look like us or not. We hope kids learn from a young age, that God's love is for everyone. We can't hold back kindness from others just because they might look or act different from us. Jesus modeled a love and kindness that included everyone. We should do that same.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- How can you be kind to people who are different from you?
- Without naming names, think of someone who is different from you. Maybe they dress differently or their family is very different from yours. Maybe they act differently at school. Whatever the reason, think of someone you don't get along with or don't understand. How could you show this person they are valuable and how would you show them kindness?
- Why might a kid your age be treated unkindly? When have you seen someone treated unkindly? Why might showing kindness to someone make you uncomfortable?
- You see someone being treated unkindly, what does it look like to respond with kindness? Is it kind to walk away when you see someone being treated unkindly? Why or why not?

Today's Bottom Line: BE KIND TO PEOPLE WHO ARE DIFFERENT FROM YOU
