Tools for better bookings.

Ditch the crowded spreadsheets and regain control of the booking process with Gigwell Productivity Suite.

Productivity Suite is the first cloud-booking platform to provide a simple solution to negotiate contracts, manage artist logistics and collect online payments.

Our solution is built from the ground up by industry professionals specifically for live entertainment bookings. No matter the size or industry of your agency, Gigwell enables your booking business to manage the entire process in one easy to use platform.

Our dedicated customer success team will be with you each step of the way, free of charge. We'll provide you with the tools needed to grow revenue and maximize time and efficiency.

THREE STEPS TO BOOKING BLISS

1. Receive qualified offers directly from your agency website or Facebook page.

2. Create and send beautifully formatted electronic contracts with one click.

3. Receive online payments and instantly sync gig details to your artists calendars.
