

PETER JOSEPH GLOVICZKI
Five American Sentences

We went on a journey to the water and collected river stones.

When the man on the corner asked what I collect I said I buy gold.

All around the world I see the ice melting one glacier at a time.

I grew up around a lot of fake people if you know what I mean.

My mornings always begin with two cups of coffee and a pancake.