Subject: senior thesis paper

Dear Writer #5,

I need a paper write away—48 hours actually. I've been accepted to Harvard! I bet you don't hear that too much. I am such an idiot for letting it get this late, but I think my proctor suspects me, so I tried to write it on my own, but then, what the f###, this system wasn't made for me, or I for it, I don't know. If I don't have this paper, then I'm not going anywhere, and I've soooooo wanted to go to H, since before I was born, my father says. My name's not really Dianthus, but if you'll just send me the thesis without the name, I can format the title page and the header myself. Is that ok? Is that how this works? Tell me if no, as I'm very flexible.

Anyway, you need to know what I need. Have you ever heard of John C. Yoo? You probably read the news all the time. I don't have any time for the news myself, though I like to read history—probably my major. Mostly memoirs. Did you read Bush's memoir? I think it was called Flash Points. Anyway, I need 30 pages, double spaced, MLA style, with at least a dozen citations, including a “good number” of primary and database sources (my proctor said he would know a “good number” when he saw it; what does that mean to you?).

Just make sure it's an argument. I don't care which side you take, but you have to prove a point. Yoo was a writer, like YOU! Get it? lol :) I think he wrote something about why we need to torture terrorists, so I'd like you to take that position. I'd do it myself, but I just couldn't read all that legalize. Didn't make sense to me. You'll get it. Anyway, you can text me this weekend if you have questions (though I probably won't know the answer!) I look forward to the finished product, a work of art.

Anxiously,
“Dianthus”
