SRMC'S Wound Healing Center set to reopen July 6

Salem, Ohio--- (June 30, 2020) – Salem Regional Medical Center (SRMC) is announcing that its Wound Healing Center will reopen on Monday, July 6. The Wound Healing Center will resume full services and return to its normal days and hours of operation, Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

The service has been temporarily closed since mid-March due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

SRMC's Wound Healing Center offers hyperbaric oxygen (HBO) therapy and other leading edge treatments for hard to heal wounds, which include diabetic, venous/arterial and pressure ulcers; osteomyelitis; radionecrosis; infections; compromised skin grafts and flaps; insect bites; thermal burns; and wounds that have not healed in 30 days.

The Wound Healing Center has earned the prestigious Healogics "Center of Distinction" award two years in a row, and seven of the past eight years, for demonstrating continued clinical excellence in wound healing and superior patient satisfaction rates. Healogics is the United States' largest provider of wound care services.

Enhanced Safety Precautions

SRMC is taking enhanced precautions to ensure the health and safety of staff and patients during their visit. These measures include a reconfigured waiting area and scheduling that promotes social distancing, in addition to frequent sanitization of chairs, exam tables and patient care areas. Patients are asked to wear a mask to help maintain the health and safety of all patients and caregivers. Individuals who do not have a cloth mask will be given one upon entry that they will then return upon exit from the office.
