Dr. Athena Beis Named Medical Director of SRMC's Wound Healing Center

(SALEM, OHIO) – January 27, 2022 – Salem Regional Medical Center (SRMC) has announced that Board Certified Internist Athena Beis, M.D., CWSP, will provide advanced wound care treatment as the new Medical Director of SRMC's nationally-recognized Wound Healing Center.

As an experienced wound care specialist, Dr. Beis provides clinical leadership and state-of-the-art care for those with painful wounds or ulcers that do not heal over time.

"Patients with diabetes, poor circulation or other serious conditions can develop chronic or non-healing wounds that may cause pain and greatly impact their quality of life," explained Dr. Beis. "Our team of specialists at SRMC's Wound Healing Center thoroughly evaluates our patients' needs and offers individualized care plans that aid in the wound healing process."

Board Certified Internist Athena Beis, M.D., CWSP, will provide advanced wound care treatment as the new Medical Director of Salem Regional Medical Center's nationally-recognized Wound Healing Center.

SRMC's Wound Healing Center offers hyperbaric oxygen therapy and a comprehensive range of advanced treatment options for those with hard to heal wounds, including diabetic and neuropathic ulcers; venous/arterial and pressure ulcers; osteomyelitis; radiation injuries; compromised skin grafts and flaps; burns; and wounds that have not healed in 30 days. These types of chronic or non-healing wounds may cause serious complications if left untreated.

Education & Training

As a Board certified internist and certified wound care specialist, Dr. Beis has extensive training and experience in managing complex wounds that are slow to heal or don't respond to traditional treatments. She earned her Bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, followed by a Medical Degree at Ross University School of Medicine. She went on to complete her Internal Medicine Residency training at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine. She is Board Certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and the American Board of Wound Management.

SRMC's Wound Healing Center

Since its launch in 2012, SRMC's Wound Healing Center has provided life-changing treatment to thousands of patients, with an average wound healing success rate over 94%.

SRMC's Wound Healing Center is recognized as a "Center of Distinction" by Healogics, Inc., the nation's leading and largest wound care management company.
