

National College Student Bystander Intervention Study 2022

JOIN US IN EMPOWERING COMMUNITIES OF UPSTANDERS

WITH US is seeking a sample of public and private colleges and universities to participate in our national study on college student bystander behavior. Participating campuses will gain a deeper understanding of student bystander attitudes, motivations, and barriers to helping across four focus areas:

- Hazing
- Bias and exclusion
- Alcohol and other drug misuse
- Sexual violence

Benefits of Participation

Expand your application of bystander intervention theory and research to mitigate these preventable harms with:

- 1 Comprehensive analysis of your institution's bystander climate within your local campus context.
- 2 Representative data of your undergraduate student population and the situations they encounter.
- 3 Critical information about why your students help (or don't) to inform campus programs and policies that promote prosocial behavior and reduce student harm.

Participation Details

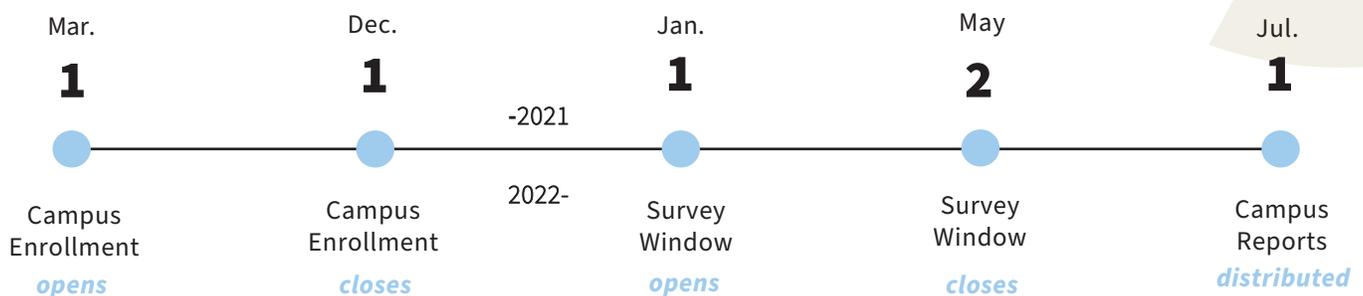

What You'll Need to Do:

- Complete campus on-boarding and survey registration.
- Designate a point of contact for survey administration correspondence.
- Confirm your preferred time frame for survey implementation.
- Securely provide a sample of undergraduate survey participants.

What We Will Take Care Of:

- Help ensure successful survey implementation from start to finish.
- Provide survey communication strategies to help you effectively engage students.
- Offer high-value incentives to maximize participation and response rate.
- Securely disseminate the survey for you through our Campus Labs Baseline software.
- Distribute reports designed to guide the development of effective bystander programs.
