

Road
Transportation
Industry in

ATLANTIC CANADA

400,000+

People Employed by Road Transportation
Industry in Canada

OPERATIONS & LOGISTICS

What Our Industry Offers

- Great Pay & Benefits
- Job Security
- Work With Awesome People
- Opportunities to Train, Grow, Advance
- Committed & Award Winning Employers

Did You Know...

Atlantic Canada is home to 2 of Canada's best post-secondary institutions that specialize in operations and logistics training, field placement, and professional certification.

Operations and logistics professionals

are one of the most essential and thriving career categories in the entire Canadian economy.

Careers that Get Things Moving

Terminal Manager

- Ensure terminal is profitable
- Report to head office team

Operations Manager

- Manage operations in terminal
- Ensure efficiency, cost effectiveness, and customer service levels are achieved

Driver/Trainer/Supervisor

- Ensure drivers operate equipment safely and efficiently
- Assist in upgrading drivers' skills, and orienting new team members

Dispatcher

- Co-ordinate drivers and equipment to handle shipments between cities
- Help manage logistics and strengthen systems

Doc Supervisor

- Ensure proper loading and unloading of freight at a carrier's terminal
- Help manage logistics to ensure efficient delivery of shipments

Billing Clerk

- Manage data related to completed moves and corresponding freight rates Often part time position for students*

FAQs

Can I visit companies to see what they do? Yes. Contact APTA. We would love to arrange a visit.

Do companies provide mentorship? Absolutely. Our members value their employees and are committed to helping them succeed and grow.

Get Started

Contact THRSC or APTA today!

thrsc.com

apta.ca