Trucking Industry Honours Atlantic Canadians

(Dieppe, NB) – Seven Atlantic Canadians were honoured Thursday, December 12, 2019 for their outstanding contributions and dedication to the trucking industry and their communities across the region. The honourees were celebrated by the Atlantic Provinces Trucking Association, its board of directors, and representatives of trucking companies from across Atlantic Canada at the APTA Annual Awards Dinner held at the Delta Beauséjour Hotel in Moncton, New Brunswick.

“The Atlantic Provinces Trucking Association proudly recognizes outstanding individuals who work behind the wheel, in the terminals, and at the desks of trucking companies and make significant contributions to our industry's success and growth throughout Atlantic Canada,” says Jean-Marc Picard, APTA's Executive Director.

Congratulations to the recipients:
