PROFESSIONAL TRUCK DRIVER OF THE MONTH
JUNE 2019

John Walsh

About the Driver

John started with Seaboard/Harmac Transport in 2004. By then, John already had 25 years experience, of which 90% was in bulk tanker work. He enjoys tank work because of the different challenges that come with it.

John is based out of the Dartmouth office and is considered a very versatile driver as he is trained to haul a large variety of chemicals. John represents the company well with very positive feedback from customers on being professional, on time and pleasant to deal with.

John is a true professional and a great asset to the company.

Congratulations John!
