

Position: Alignment Technician

Location: Moncton, NB

How to Apply: Online Here

---

Lounsbury Heavy-Duty Truck Centre in Moncton has an immediate opening for an Alignment Technician.

The Alignment Technician's main responsibility is to operate the alignment machine. You will work with an experienced team of Technicians, working on Mack and Volvo heavy-duty trucks.

We are seeking an experienced technician, who is reliable and enjoys working in a team environment.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Alignment of heavy and light duty trucks
- Properly align vehicle as per company specifications, to ensure safe operation.
- Communicate & receive authorization from the customer prior to any work being performed.
- Communicate with Service Advisors on status and update them on customer's vehicles.
- Complete repair order by writing out the work performed on the vehicle.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: College Diploma in Truck and Transport Service Technician or Automotive Technician

Language: English or French

- Licensed Truck and Trailer Technician or automotive technician with interest in heavy-duty trucks
- Knowledge of Hunter Alignment Equipment would be an asset.
- Valid driver license and clean abstract
- Previous experience performing alignments is an asset.
- Ability to work in a team environment, apply and learn new process.

WHY WORK WITH US

The Lounsbury Group of Companies is committed to investing in our employees through training programs and a great work environment, plus:

- Competitive Wages
- Group Benefit Plan including health, dental, vision, life insurance, short-term disability and long-term disability
- Employee discounts on cars and furniture
- Career growth and continuous development
- Respectful and cohesive working environment with strong company values

If you would like to know more about our 140+ year organization visit us at www.lounsburys.com