Thanks to Herbert + Kohlmeyer it was easy to find some beautiful apartments and buy them quickly and without any setbacks. Herbert + Kohlmeyer supported me at every step in the buying process. They also helped me find tenants and easily rent my apartments, and when it was time to either rent out an apartment or when it needed some repairs, Herbert + Kohlmeyer helped me find the right people to do these jobs quickly and efficiently. This is why I bought 3 apartments from Herbert + Kohlmeyer and plan to buy one more using their service in the near future.

I am grateful that I walked into their office. As a Russian citizen, I thought it would be difficult to buy a property in Berlin, but they helped me at every step of the way. Herbert + Kohlmeyer played a crucial role for me, and helped me learn and understand the real estate market in Berlin. Thanks to Herbert + Kohlmeyer, today I know the real estate market of Berlin as well as I know the Moscow real estate market, and they did it all in Russian. Herbert + Kohlmeyer were the best surprise in Berlin for me.

Thanks to Herbert + Kohlmeyer, I and my relatives could easily find several excellent apartments. The purchase process was very comfortable for us. All the questions that arose during the acquisition of the apartments were resolved with the help of the company's sales representatives without any problems. Herbert + Kohlmeyer supported us at every step in the buying process. They also helped us find tenants and rent out the purchased apartments. In addition, representatives of the company helped us with related works, such as repair of purchased apartments. All this was included in the package of services we received. I consider cooperation with Herbert + Kohlmeyer successful and effective. If my friends or relatives decide to buy an apartment in Germany, I will definitely recommend them to do this through Herbert + Kohlmeyer. I am confident that all issues will be resolved at a high professional level.

I am grateful that I went into their office. Being a Russian citizen, I assumed that it would be difficult to buy real estate in Berlin. Herbert + Kohlmeyer however were able to quickly and efficiently introduce me to the real estate market in Berlin. Now I know the real estate market in Berlin as well as I know the real estate market in Moscow, and most importantly, I dealt with representatives of the company in my native language, that is, in Russian. This was yet another additional bonus from Herbert + Kohlmeyer.

ZITAT:

Now I know the real estate market in Berlin as well as I know the real estate market in Moscow, and most importantly, I dealt with Herbert + Kohlmeyer in my native language.

Теперь я знаю рынок недвижимости Берлина так же хорошо, как я знаю рынок недвижимости Москвы, и что особенно важно, я общалась с представителями компании на моем родном языке.

Dank Herbert + Kohlmeyer kenne ich den Berliner Immobilienmarkt jetzt ebenso gut wie den Moskauer Immobilienmarkt und, was für mich besonders wichtig ist, ich konnte mich in meiner eigenen Sprache verständigen.
