

We build profitable and successful companies equipped for the future - investment strategy.

- Schörling's overall ambition is to find companies where we can create a positive force for change through our ownership.
- Schörling's role as active owner is to create conditions for companies to develop, so that they become the best in their class. We believe in a long-term view, cost awareness, sustainability and close relationships. And finally, the focus is on good results.
- Schörling is looking for industrial companies that can develop to become leaders in their respective niches and markets.
- Schörling is looking for companies with products and services that offer a business model with potential for geographical expansion.
- Schörling is looking for companies that likely have their roots in Scandinavia and that have come a part on the way towards a global leading position.
- Schörling has no industry-specific restrictions.
- Schörling invests in the companies where we have strong faith in the management's ambitions and ability.
- Schörling's interest is companies where our expertise and our network can contribute to the company's continued development.