
APPOINTMENT OF ENDURING GUARDIANSHIP

BY

::= CAPTAIN CICERO

ENDURING GUARDIANSHIP IN NEW SOUTH WALES

APPOINTMENT OF ENDURING GUARDIAN FORM

REVISED MARCH 2018

NSW GOVERNMENT

SAMPLE

Appointment of Enduring Guardian For New South Wales
(Guardianship Regulation 2016, Schedule 1)

Important information to read before completing the Enduring Guardianship appointment form

- An Enduring Guardianship appointment is an important document. It allows someone else to make medical and lifestyle decisions on your behalf. You should get legal or medical advice (or both) before you sign it.
- It is important that you trust the person you appoint as your Enduring Guardian to make appropriate lifestyle decisions on your behalf. It is recommended you inform this person of your wishes about lifestyle decisions and involve them in discussions about your views or goals. If these change, it is important to let your Enduring Guardian know.
- An Enduring Guardian can only make lifestyle decisions such as health decisions. You should make an Enduring Power of Attorney if you want someone to make financial decisions on your behalf if you lose capacity.
- If you appoint more than one Enduring Guardian, you should indicate whether the Enduring Guardians are to act jointly, severally or jointly and severally. Enduring Guardians who are appointed jointly are only able to make decisions if they all agree about the decision. Enduring Guardians who are appointed severally or jointly and severally are able to make decisions independently of each other.
- If you appoint a substitute Enduring Guardian*, they will only have authority to act as your guardian if the first appointed enduring guardian/s dies, resigns or becomes incapacitated.
- Each Enduring Guardian must sign their acceptance on the appointment for it to be effective.
- If someone signs the appointment on your behalf, they must be at least 18 years old. They must not be the person being appointed as an Enduring Guardian. They cannot also witness the execution of the appointment.
- If you marry after you appoint an Enduring Guardian then the appointment will automatically be revoked (unless you married your Enduring Guardian).
- Your Enduring Guardian can resign at any time, by giving you notice in writing. If you have lost capacity to make decisions at that time then your Enduring Guardian can only resign with the approval of the NSW Civil & Administrative Tribunal.
- Enduring Guardianship appointments are not automatically accessible on any public register. Therefore, it is important that key people are aware of the appointment so they can contact the Enduring Guardian if required. You should provide a copy of the Enduring Guardianship appointment to your Enduring Guardian and keep a copy in a safe place. You should also let close friends or family know about it and give a copy to your solicitor, doctor and health service provider. •
- Further information:
 - The Office of the Public Guardian can provide information on guardianship, call 02 8688 6070.
 - NSW Trustee & Guardian can prepare and witness your Enduring Guardianship, call 1300 364 103.
 - NSW Civil & Administrative Tribunal Guardianship Division should be contacted if a person does not have legal capacity or there are concerns about whether someone had capacity when an Enduring Guardianship or Power of Attorney was prepared, call 1300 006 228.

*previously referred to as alternate guardian.

Enduring Guardian/s can only make health and lifestyle decisions. You should make an Enduring Power of Attorney if you want someone to make financial decisions on your behalf.

Select what functions you wish your Enduring Guardians to have should you lose capacity to make decisions yourself.

You may place limits on these functions. If you wish to place a limit on the function provide details in the space below each function.

Note:

Your Enduring Guardian/s can only exercise these functions if you have lost capacity to make decisions yourself.

You may add any additional function you wish your Enduring Guardian/s to exercise on your behalf.

For example other functions could include:

- access (making decisions about who you should have contact with).
- restrictive practices (deciding whether to consent to the use of physical restraint for a limited period to protect you from self harm).

4. Functions and Limits of my Enduring Guardian

Should I become incapable of making my own personal decisions I authorise my Enduring Guardian to exercise the following functions:

[tick any one or more boxes]

to decide where I live

Limits on authority of Enduring Guardian: Not applicable

to decide what health care I receive

Limits on authority of Enduring Guardian: Not Applicable

~~to decide what kinds of personal services I receive~~

Limits on authority of Enduring Guardian:

to consent to the carrying out of medical or dental treatment on me (in accordance with Part 5 of the Guardianship Act 1987)

Limits on authority of Enduring Guardian: Not Applicable

Enduring Guardian/s can only make health and lifestyle decisions. You should make an Enduring Power of Attorney if you want someone to make financial decisions on your behalf.

Select what functions you wish your Enduring Guardians to have should you lose capacity to make decisions yourself.

You may place limits on these functions. If you wish to place a limit on the function provide details in the space below each function.

- restrictive practices (deciding whether to consent to the use of physical restraint for a limited period to protect you from self harm).

4. Functions and Limits of my Enduring Guardian (cont.)

to decide:

Palliative care decisions

If I am so seriously ill that there is no likelihood of recovery then I authorise my Enduring Guardian to make decisions to ensure that I am not subjected to medical intervention unlikely to meaningfully prolong my life such as life support systems, artificial ventilation, blood transfusion, dialysis, antibiotics to control infection, artificial nutrition and surgery.

It is my wish that I be kept comfortable, receive ordinary medical treatment and palliative care and be allowed to die. Any distressing symptoms should be controlled despite the necessary treatment shortening my life.

Information request decisions

I authorise my Enduring Guardian to make decisions to request and receive any information that my Enduring Guardian may require and my Enduring Guardian may authorise and direct any person, health care provider, authority, institution, health care facility, hospital, aged care facility or nursing home to disclose such information to my Enduring Guardian despite any privacy or other rules that might provide to the contrary.

You may give your Enduring Guardian/s directions about how you want them to carry out their functions.

For example, you can direct them to consult other family members before making a decision or give details about the kind of place you would like to live if you lost capacity.

Note: An Enduring Guardian must exercise their functions according to any directions you give them.

You can only give lawful directions. You cannot give directions to your Enduring Guardian/s to do something which is against the law.

You may wish to direct your Enduring Guardian to refer to your Advance Care Directive when making medical and health care decisions.

5. Optional - directions to my Enduring Guardian

The functions of my Enduring Guardian must be exercised in accordance with the following directions:

Save money whenever possible!.
