

Breakthrough Quick Scan[©]

What is this tool?

How is innovation valued in your organisation?
And what impact do you want to achieve with innovations?

Sometimes different people work on different levels in the organisation resulting in different outcomes. The challenge is to get all stakeholders on all levels aligned to work towards a successful result. Take the first step with this easily accessible tool.

What is in it for you?

Our quick scan gives a first impression of to what extent you are aware of the importance of innovations and breakthroughs and are able to achieve the desired impact.

This is the first tool of The Owls Breakthrough Method[©] which bridges the gap between the strategic and the operational level. It is meant to be a stepping stone to The Owls Breakthrough Analysis[©].

Tip: you can do the quick scan based on the present situation (ist) and next based on the desired situation (soll).

Get other members of your organisation or team to do the quick scan. Results often point to different views and can be a starting point for discussion on innovation in your organisation. Try it now!

Contact us for your next step to improve your innovative strenght!

The Owls Cooperative (Coöperatieve) U.A.
P O Box 46
4190 CA Geldermalsen
The Netherlands

info@theowlscooperative.com
www.theowlscooperative.com

The Owls' vision for the future? To create a context and awareness where innovations are recognised, welcomed, stimulated and professionally implemented; whether in organisations, education of governments.

And creating eco systems with like minded organisations that 'click' with us and that also aim for impact on society. Read more on our website and follow us on social media.

