Advises companies in the O&G industry with an approach that combines the legal/tax context with a practical view on procedural aspects.

Practice Area

Tax

Professional Background

Tiago leads the customs practice and the cases involving the taxation of the Oil, Gas & Offshore industry. He has extensive experience in customs matters (both consulting and litigation), including procedural aspects in foreign trade operations, as he has added to his legal knowledge the qualification courses in the customs and foreign trade areas.

Tiago advises almost all companies in the Brazilian Oil, Gas & Offshore sector (including oil, exploration and drilling companies, support shipping companies, Oil, Gas & Offshore service providers and many industry equipment suppliers), with local or foreign manufacturing of such equipment), and also for the most relevant industry associations (IBP and ABESPETRO), with an approach that combines the legal/tax context with a practical view on the procedural aspects involved.

Recognition

Tiago is recognized among the leaders in his practice area in Brazil, by the Latin Lawyer 250 guide, in the "Tax" category and by the Análise Advocacia guide, for his specialty in "International Trade".
