

DUTCH DESK

The Dutch Desk represents Dutch companies with businesses in Brazil and advises Brazilian companies with activities in the Netherlands, working in partnership with local offices according to the style and goals of each client.

It is headed by partner Camila Borba Lefèvre, who is fluent in Dutch, graduated in Dutch law from Leiden University, qualified as a Dutch lawyer, having worked for nine years at Houthoff Buruma, one of the most renowned Law Firm in Netherlands.

Our attorneys are experienced and familiar with the main concerns of Dutch companies investing in Brazil, advising clients in various areas such as agribusiness, infrastructure and logistics, technology and media, engineering and construction, consulting and services, food industry, pharmaceuticals and cosmetics, among others.

In addition to being a member of the Brazil-Netherlands Chamber of Commerce (Dutcham), the firm also participates in the Dutch Business Lawyers Abroad, a global association of Dutch business lawyer's active outside of the Netherlands.
