STATUTES MADE UNDER THE GENERAL MANAGEMENT STATUTE

MANAGEMENT BODY RULES

Citation

1. These rules are made pursuant to Clauses 3 and 5 of the General Management Statute and may be cited as the Management Body Rules.

Interpretation of Expressions

2. For the purposes of these rules, unless some other meaning is clearly intended, the expression:

"Course Professor" shall be defined as being a Professor appointed to the University under the provisions of Article 28(c) of the Charter and having responsibility for leading a course or teaching programme of the University;

"general management of the University" shall be defined as the direction and administration of the operations and functions of the University without prejudice to the functions of the Academic Council.

Constitution and Functions of the Management Body

3. Pursuant to the provisions of Clauses 3 and 5(c) of the General Management Statute a Management Body shall be constituted as the peak consultative body on matters to do with the general management of the University. It shall be the function of the Management Body to provide advice and assistance to the President in the execution of his responsibilities for the general management of the University under the provisions of Article 25(c) of the Charter.

In exercising these functions the Management Body shall:

- (a) furnish to the President comments, recommendations and advice on matters referred to it by the President or any member including comments, recommendations and advice on the reports of officers and committees of the University on matters pertinent to the general management of the University;
- (b) follow rules of procedure in accordance with the principles adopted in the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Governors.

Membership of the Management Body

4. The members of the Management Body shall be the persons holding the following offices, ex officio:

President,
Vice-President (Academic),
Course Professor,
Head, Finance and Administration
Registrar

Chairmanship of the Management Body

5. The President shall be the chairman of the Management Body. The Vice-President (Academic) shall be the vice-chairman of the Management Body. In the absence of the President and the Vice-President (Academic) the person acting in the office of President shall be chairman for the meeting.

Designation of the Management Body as a Special Advisory Board

6. The President may for certain purposes designate the Management Body as a special advisory board where the regulations and the rules of the University require the establishment of such a board for the purpose of reporting or advising on matters specified by such regulations or rules.

Convening of Meetings

7. Meetings of the Management Body shall be convened at any time on the initiative of the President or at the request of any member.
