

Chaplain (Lieutenant Colonel) Nadine B. Davis

Chaplain, Lieutenant Colonel, Nadine B. Davis is a native from the Caribbean Island of Jamaica. In 1983 her parents relocated her and siblings to reside in Boston, MA. In 1999, Chaplain Davis joined the United States Army as an Executive Administrative Specialist and enjoyed her first assignment at Fort Huachuca, Arizona with the 306th MI BN. Her follow on assignment was to Korea working with DET 2, 311th Signal Command as the Executive Administrative NCO. She was later assigned to 3D Army, Fort McPherson and deployed with ARCENT to Kuwait.

In 2005 Chaplain Davis was commissioned through the Officer Candidate School to later qualify as an Engineer Officer. She was assigned as the NBC Platoon Leader with 1st Cavalry Division and then as an Executive Officer with the 20th Engineer Battalion. She served on active duty capacity for eight and a half years then joined the United States Army Reserve.

In 2011, Chaplain Davis received acceptance into the Army's Chaplain Corp where she served as a Chaplain Candidate with the 228th Combat Support Hospital (CSH) in Fort Sam Houston, TX. In 2015 she was accessed as an Army Reserve Chaplain and continued to serve with the 228th CSH as the Senior Hospital Chaplain. In 2016 CH Davis was competitively selected into the Active Guard Reserve program and assigned as the Deputy Command Chaplain with the 3rd Medical Command (Deployment Support) at Gillem (Enclave), GA. Currently she serves as the Deputy Command Chaplain with the 9th Mission Support Command, Fort Shafter, HI.

Chaplain Davis received her ecclesiastical endorsement through the Pentecostal Church of God. She completed a yearlong residential Clinical Pastoral Education earning the 7S and 7R additional skills identifiers. She has a Bachelor's degree in Business Management, Clark University, MA, a Masters of Divinity Degree through Liberty University, VA, and is a candidate for a Doctor of Ministry Degree with Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC, May 2022.

Chaplain Davis served with units decorated with the Army Meritorious Unit Commendation and the Army Superior Unit Awards. Her additional awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, and the Army Achievement Medal one oak leaf cluster.

Chaplain Davis honored in marriage to Mr. Frank J. Davis IV, a prior United States Army Infantryman. They have three beautiful children, Alana, Carrington, and Zion.
