

Stop 1

Ewenny Pottery

Ewenny Pottery is just down the road from the group friendly Best Western Heronston Hotel and Spa. The same family have been making pots there for over eight generations.

Ewenny Pottery is the smallest pottery in Wales. Visitors to the workshop can watch the pots being made and purchase finished ware in the showroom as souvenirs.

Stop 2

Porthcawl

Starting outside the Grand Pavilion on the seafront, get a breath of fresh sea air before exploring the unspoilt Welsh seaside resort of Porthcawl.

The stunning coast around the town of Porthcawl has been attracting tourists for generations. Enjoy the seafront cafés and restaurants, take a walking tour of the town's shops, sights and attractions, or go on a guided bike ride along the promenade.

Discover the rich history of the area with a visit to the wonderful Porthcawl Museum or the iconic 1930s Grand Pavilion.

Stop 3

Pyle Garden Village

Pyle garden village and all its shops, garden centre, and restaurant the olive tree is ideal for groups.

With a plethora of shops, showrooms and facilities to enjoy, and of course the garden centre itself.

There's a huge amount of shopping available and of course no visit is complete without a visit to the olive tree restaurant.

Stop 4

McArthur Glen Designer Outlet Bridgend

With more than 90 stores, cafés and restaurants, McArthur Glen Designer Outlet Bridgend is the leading Designer Outlet in Wales, where you can find your favourite labels with price reductions of up to 60%, all year round.