This poster provides some guidelines to the Texas child labor laws, but it is not complete. Chapter 51, Texas Labor Code, governs the employment of children under Texas state law. MINIMUM AGE FOR EMPLOYMENT IS 14; however, state and federal laws provide for certain exceptions. Please call TWC's Labor Law Section concerning questions about labor law. The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) governs federal laws and guidelines pertaining to child labor. For information concerning federal child labor laws, consult your local office of the U.S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division or call 1-866-487-9243

The following are prohibited occupations for 14- through 17-year-old children:

Prohibited occupations are the same for both federal and state law. The hazardous occupations designated by an asterisk (*) have provisions for employment of persons below the age of eighteen (18), provided applicable apprentice or student-learner certification has been obtained. Persons desiring specific information about these exceptions should contact the nearest office of the United States Department of Labor.

Occupations declared particularly hazardous or detrimental to the health or well-being of all children 14 through 17 years of age include occupations:

Work times for 14- and 15-year-old children:

State Law — A person commits an offense if that person permits a child 14 or 15 years of age who is employed by that person to work:

- (1) more than 8 hours in one day or more than 48 hours in one week,
- (2) between the hours of 10 p.m. and 5 a.m. on a day that is followed by a school day or between the hours of midnight and 5 a.m. on a day that is not followed by a school day if the child is enrolled in school, or
- (3) between the hours of midnight and 5 a.m. on any day during the time school is recessed for the summer if the child is not enrolled in summer school.

Federal Law — The FLSA further regulates hours of employment. 14 and 15 year old children may not work:

- (1) during school hours,
- (2) more than eight hours on a non-school day or 40 hours during a non-school week,
- (3) more than three hours on a school day or 18 hours during a school week, and
- (4) between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. during the school year, or
- (5) between 9 p.m. and 7 a.m. from June 1 and Labor Day.

Child Actors- state law

Child actor definition - a child under the age of 14 who is to be employed as an actor or other performer

Child actor extra definition - a child under the age of 14 who is employed as an extra without any speaking, singing, or dancing roles, usually in the background of the performance

Every person applying for child actor authorization must submit an application for authorization on a form provided by the Texas Workforce Commission.

Special authorization for child actors to be employed as extras is granted without the need for filing an application if the employer meets the Texas Workforce Commission's requirements. Contact 1-800-832-9243 for instruction.

PENALTIES:

State of Texas — An offense under Chapter 51, Texas Labor Code, is a Class B misdemeanor, except for the offense of employing a child under 14 to sell or solicit, which is a Class A misdemeanor. If the Commission determines that a person who employs a child has violated this Act, or a rule adopted under this Act, the Commission may assess an administrative penalty against that person in an amount not to exceed $10,000 for each violation. The attorney general may seek injunctive relief in district court against an employer who repeatedly violates the requirements established by this Act relating to the employment of children.

Federal — The FLSA prescribes a maximum administrative penalty of $11,000 per violation and/or criminal prosecution and fines.

Are You Owed Wages?

YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE TO FILE A WAGE CLAIM UNDER THE TEXAS PAYDAY LAW

Wages are:

- Payment owed to an employee by an employer for labor or services performed
- Calculated based on time, task, piece, commission, etc.
- Owed for vacation, severance, holiday, sick leave or parental leave only if provided for by a written agreement or policy.

Wages must be paid:

- At least once a month to Fair Labor Standards Act or FLSA-exempt employees
- At least twice a month to FLSA-non-exempt employees
- In full no later than the sixth day following an employee's discharge
- In full no later than the next regular payday for employees who leave for reasons other than discharge
- For bonus-or-commissions-based payments in the same timely manner, and as agreed upon by the employer and employee.

Wages may be withheld or diverted by the employer only if:

- Authorized to do so by a proper court, or
- Authorized to do so by state or federal law, or
- The employee gives written permission to do so for a lawful purpose.

Workers who believe wages are due them...

May file a wage claim using TWC's online system or by using a paper form that you print and mail or fax to TWC. Go to <https://twc.texas.gov/jobseekers/texas-payday-law> to file online, or get a paper wage claim form at a TWC Workforce office, download from our website, or call the numbers listed below to have the form mailed to you. Wage claims must be filed with the Texas Workforce Commission Labor Law Section not later than the 180th day after the wages were due for payment.
