

21 DAYS OF PRAYER GUIDE

Inquire

DAY ONE

Pray for PCG ministries and churches to display God's glory through our worship, prayer, the preaching of the Word, our love for one another, healings, messages of divine direction and encouragement, and in outreach. Pray that we move from an American church with a global mission to a Global church with a global mission. Pray that onlookers would be attracted to God as they see that He is in our midst!

DAY TWO

Ask the Holy Spirit to release an even greater generosity within the hearts of those associated with the PCG so that local, national, and global ministries will experience generous funding. Pray that we will freely offer our time, resources and energy for God's purposes and values. Pray for our children and youth to learn biblical stewardship from their parents and leaders. Ask God to raise up districts, mother churches, and Christian businesses to invest in church planting. Pray that wealth will be placed in the hands of believers and used to win the lost and to equip and send the found.

DAY THREE

Ask the Holy Spirit to saturate the hearts of worshipers in our churches with absolute delight in God's perfections. Ask Him to move powerfully through our worship pastors and worship ministries. Pray for our leaders in Student Ministries to encourage young children, high school and college students to value true beauty as God characterizes it. Pray for young people across the globe to find their greatest delight in God instead of the attractions of this world.

DAY FOUR

Ask the Holy Spirit to unleash the tender, compassionate love of God to be experienced by the PCG body in fresh and powerful ways. Pray for marriages and families to be profoundly transformed by His love with the result of greater unity in their relationships. Pray for our men to chase after God's heart and lead their families into deeper relationship with the Lord. Pray for our women to know they are loved and empowered to make a difference in the world as wives, mothers, daughters, businesswomen, and leaders.

DAY FIVE

Ask the Holy Spirit to empower our International Mission Center to become a strong resource for training pastors, missionaries, church planters, and multicultural leaders to carry the gospel into the world. Ask the Holy Spirit to use our ministries, churches, and local and global mission fields to show seekers that God can be found.

DAY SIX

Pray for the PCG staff, pastors, and ministry leaders to have spiritual understanding of God's purposes and strategies in their ministries and churches. Ask the Holy Spirit to use them to clarify His truth as they affirm identity, bring revelation, and generate life through their leading, preaching, teaching, and coaching. Pray that nonbelievers searching for fulfillment will be attracted to the lifestyles displayed by our church members. Pray that God will grant wisdom and financial resources to develop information technology and move the message and mission of the PCG forward.

DAY SEVEN

Pray for the leadership, staff, and faculty of Messenger College to continue to receive clear direction and strategies for equipping and encouraging those called to leadership. Pray for the young adults to be filled with faith as they wait for answers clarifying their calling, potential spouses, and other life decisions. Ask the Holy Spirit to draw us with unwavering devotion to pray in the spirit daily. Pray for pastors to cultivate a culture of prayer that would usher in revival and spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere through the fragrance of our lives in 2018.

DAY EIGHT

Pray for the leaders and directors of the PCG to be physically strong. Pray that God will refresh, strengthen, and sustain pastors and ministry leaders so that they don't become weary. Ask the Spirit to continually fill those serving in a nation not their own. Pray for the development of Spirit-empowered resources that will effectively communicate the gospel in our culture and around the globe.

DAY NINE

Ask the Spirit to send revival to all college campuses. Pray for our students to have a deep knowledge and understanding of the Word. Pray for collegiate on secular campuses to stay rooted and grounded when their faith is attacked.

DAY TEN

Ask the Holy Spirit to pour out His victorious strength for those in the PCG churches and ministries who are struggling with addictions and issues that inhibit them from living in God's freedom. Pray for God's power to flow through the pastors, leaders, and missionaries in areas where they need strength. Pray for prodigal members of families to experience Jesus' power to overcome the attractions of this world and to come back "home" to God. Pray for mothers to be empowered to raise their children in the way of the Lord and not lose hope for any lost children to return to God.

DAY ELEVEN

Ask the Holy Spirit to use PCG pastors and leaders to reassure new believers of their secured position in Christ. Pray that the PCG will develop information technology to effectively communicate the hope that comes from eternal life and the relentless love of Jesus in a caring and credible way. Pray for the formation of a PCG communications team and ask the Spirit to fill team members with new and creative ways to share the PCG message. Ask the Spirit to empower the PCG to reach the next generations through information technology and social media.

DAY TWELVE

Ask the Holy Spirit to direct the PCG staff and leadership by revealing God's perspective in all areas of ministry. Pray for increased effectiveness in coaching and mentoring up-and-coming generations of young ministers. Ask the Holy Spirit for strategies to care for the 153 million orphans worldwide.

DAY THIRTEEN

Pray that we will be able to lease the second floor of the International Mission Center for ministry support. Pray for the rental of the Messenger College property and the move of the college classes to the IMC. Ask the Spirit to increase financial resources for the American Indians Missions Department.

DAY FOURTEEN

Pray for the One Mission—One Movement vision, for PCG staff and leaders, church pastors, and ministry leaders with this prayer adapted from Colossians 3:15-17: “Holy Spirit, we ask for your help to let the peace of Christ keep us in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing our own thing. And (let us) cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Message—have the run of (our ministries and) houses. (Help us to) give it plenty of room in our lives. (Help us to) instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And (may we) sing, sing our hearts out to God! Let every detail in our lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Father every step of the way” (Col. 3:15-17, MSG).

DAY FIFTEEN

Ask the Holy Spirit to strengthen the hearts of those within the PCG to answer God’s call to obedience. Pray that we would care more about the fear of God than the fear of men. Ask the Holy Spirit to give us powerful strategies and opportunities to “right the wrongs” in this world with God’s righteous authority and merciful love.

DAY SIXTEEN

Pray for the protection of America against terrorism. Pray for chaplains and military leadership to find strength in the refuge of God. Pray for the safety and protection of all our students attending school. Pray for increased global awareness of the need for disaster relief workers and volunteers and for our new International Mission Center to be a powerful resource for their training. Pray for a decline in the suicide rate of Native Americans.

DAY SEVENTEEN

Pray that PCG staff and leaders, pastors, and church members will live with continual surrender to God in all aspects of their lives. Pray for the following scripture to be true of One Mission—One Movement: “Live in us. Make our home in You just as You do in us. In the same way that a branch can’t bear grapes by itself but only by being joined to the vine, we can’t bear fruit unless we are joined with You.” Pray for unified surrender that will bear a multitude of fruit!

DAY EIGHTEEN

Ask the Holy Spirit to release opportunity and courage within PCG churches and ministries to share testimonies of who God is and what He has done with those we come into contact with. Pray for our local and global missions to powerfully display God's signs and wonders. Pray for boldness and perseverance to be strengthened in Christians all over the world, especially in regions where they are persecuted for their faith.

DAY NINETEEN

Ask the Holy Spirit to empower the PCG's One Mission—One Movement to be a channel through which God's relentless pursuit of love is expressed to those who do not know Him. Pray for PCG staff, pastors, and local and global ministry leaders to be strengthened with perseverance in this pursuit. Pray that this pursuit would result in new churches in new places and for future church planters in the PCG.

DAY TWENTY

Pray for true unity to exist in One Mission—One Movement as you pray in agreement with Jesus by saying, "And may (we—the PCG body) be in (fellowship with the Father and the Son) so that the world will believe You sent (Jesus)" (John 17:21, NLT). Pray for the PCG fellowship of believers to be filled with grace, forgiveness, thoughtful and intentional kindness, and love. Ask the Holy Spirit to draw nonbelievers into the body of Christ through the demonstration of deep friendships that are shared.

DAY TWENTY-ONE

Pray for the PCG body to be known for its love for one another (John 13:35) and to bear witness to God's love by intentionally reaching out to others. Pray for the body of Christ to provide such a strong witness of the truth of Jesus as the Messiah that Jews around the world would believe in Him and embrace their originally intended identity as a community of witness to nonbelievers. Pray for the Spirit's continued passion, power, and leading to be released in and through One Mission—One Movement so that 2018 is the year God's glory is witnessed throughout the world!
