

How would you describe yourself?

Are there any key 'lightbulb' or 'turning point' moments in your story that allowed you to pursue your passion?

What is one element of your story that you would like to be portrayed in this film?

Have you had any major accomplishments or awards?

Do you have any locations that mean a lot to you?

How would you describe your craft and style?

What are the largest personal hardships that you have gone through? (This could be a life event, mental health, physical health, self doubt, losing a friend, etc)

What drives you and gives you purpose, either in life or in your craft?

What was your biggest business hardship to overcome?

What do you enjoy doing aside from your craft?

Who are the people closest to you in your life?