Help Your Students Experience Collegiate Life

Student Citizens is a residential, summer intensive program taking place on Miami University's Oxford campus July 11th – July 23rd.

The program is intended to offer rising high school seniors a general college experience through a balanced mix of academic coursework, social activity, and residential living.

Academically, selected participants will daily:

- Engage college-style coursework under the tutelage of Miami University faculty
- Participate in an intensive seminar on the topic of citizenship
- Receive 3:1 and 1:1 guidance from an academic mentor
- Develop reading, writing, and communication skills
- Practice specific critical thinking and writing skills

Socially, students will experience collegiate life as they:

- Live on campus in a Miami University residence hall
- Enjoy a variety of extracurricular activities
- Connect with peers and mentors in social setting

Student Citizens is college preparatory in nature. As such, participants will maintain connection with program faculty and student mentors throughout the academic year. Student Citizens will provide all summer program graduates with ongoing college admissions support and guidance. Applicants should be prepared to return to Oxford a handful of times throughout the academic year.

Applications are live and will be accepted through May 1st. Please encourage deserving, dedicated students to apply.

Who should apply: Rising Seniors (Class of 2022), within 50 miles of Oxford, Ohio

Student Citizens is intended to provide area high school students with a unique opportunity to experience college life in and out of the classroom. Because students will be expected to return to campus throughout the academic year, those rising seniors within 50 miles of Miami's Oxford campus are most encouraged to apply.

Application Deadline: May 1

Student Application Information: <http://humanitiescenter.miamioh.edu/student-programs/student-citizens>

Program Cost: FREE to participants

Thanks to a grant from the Teagle Foundation, the Humanities Center and the College of Arts and Science, tuition is free to all participants.

Program Dates: July 11 – 23

Student Citizens is designed as an immersive, on campus experience. The program will run only if such an in-person experience is deemed safe by university, local, and state officials. To ensure the health and safety of all, the program will follow all CDC and local health department protocols and recommendations. A final decision about whether Student Citizens 2021 will take place will be made no later than June 1, 2021.

Contact: Erin Elliott at Miami University (elliotej@miamioh.edu)

Student Citizens 2021 will admit a class of 15 participants. Closing the achievement gap for economically challenged students rests at the heart of Miami University's new strategic plan, MiamiRISE. "Student Citizens" will thus join existing Miami efforts to recruit, serve and retain a diverse student body.
