

Problem Six

Problem Six is a rapid prototyping tool to quickly analyse social challenges and ideate potential solutions. Social challenges are often extremely complex and it can often be hard to know where to start or where energy should be channeled. Alternatively, sometimes a fresh approach to a well-known challenge is also needed. Problem Six is a useful ideation tool to quickly navigate a path through complex decision-making.

For more information visit wearespur.com/resources

	Option 1	Option 2	Option 3	Option 4	Option 5
Step one · Desired state Your lofty vision for the future
	(Select one)
Step two · Focus population Key groups affected by this problem
	(Select one)
Step three · Key barriers Key barriers to achieving the desired state for your focus population
	(Select one)
Step four · Barrier reduction How the barrier might be reduced, mitigated, or avoided
	(Select one)				