

PREDRAG TOMIĆ

Creative Designer

About me

I consider myself to be extremely fortunate, because my job, such as it is, generally entails doing what I love. I call myself a creative designer as it's a nice term for the graphic design, print design, brand design, web design, 3D work that I do. The clients I have worked for and currently work with are connected to the companies and agencies I have worked for. The clients I worked for and currently work for are in the field of car industry, IT technology, artificial intelligence, agricultural development, food industry.
