

SPEAKER

If you like talking, then you're in luck because you have been selected as the speaker for this activity! As the speaker, you will spend three minutes describing your dream vacation to the listener. Try being as detailed as possible: Talk about the activities you would do, the places you would visit, and the people you would be with.

LISTENER

How good of a listener are you? Well, you're about to find out! For the next three minutes, you will listen to the speaker talk about their dream vacation. As they share their story, you need to count the number of words ending in "ing". Pay close attention and be as diligent as possible because you don't want to miss an "ing" word!
