

Disability Advisory Committee Application Form 2022-24

Disability Advisory Committee

Expressions of interest are being sort for community members looking to join the Disability Advisory Committee in the next term 2022/24.

The Committee's main goal is to represent the community and to give advice to Council on access and inclusion issues.

Council is looking for people with lived experience of disability, carers, disability sector professionals and community members.

Committee members:

- Contribute expertise and knowledge to the work of Council and its partners
- Endorse Council initiatives that are related to access and inclusion
- Participate in working groups on specific areas of Council activity
- Respond to requests of advice by Council Officers on policies, activities, projects and plans

The Committee is voluntary and meets bimonthly. Phone-link provisions can be made to ensure remote areas of East Gippsland are represented.

Committee members are expected to maintain standards of behaviours and practice in line with Council's Code of Conduct for Volunteers. Please find link to document below
