

Date Completed: _____
Mentor Initials: _____

A mentor can change everything.

Semicolons

Decide if a semicolon is appropriate in the sentences below. (Yes/No)

1. I love the moon; you love the sun.
2. Italians love pasta; they make the best pasta in the world.
3. She likes to garden; and he likes woodworking.
4. The monkey swings from tree to tree; while the tortoise basks in the sunshine.
5. Instead of receiving birthday presents; she'd like people to donate to charity.
6. Chemistry is confusing; it makes my head hurt.
7. I didn't expect it to snow today; so I wore my jelly sandals.
8. My grandma dyed her hair blond to cover the gray; it turned out periwinkle.
9. The camel spit on me at the zoo; and it was gross!
10. The Benadryl made him very sleepy; he still hasn't woken up yet.
11. Darci drives a Chevy; Tim drives a Dodge.
12. Fletcher loves the NFL; he entered a contest to be the youth announcer at the Super Bowl.
13. I can't recall how many cups of coffee I've had; but I'm jumping on the trampoline nonstop.
14. Should I wear a British colonial wig; or get a perm?

15. Because the bowling alley is very full tonight; I wonder how long the wait will be.

16. You have the coolest outfits; I love your hammer pants!

17. The Backstreet Boys used to be famous; I wish they still were.

18. The wizards are gathering in the park; Quidditch shall begin at the release of the snitch.

19. I graduated from Elf Defense Academy; I can now defend my elf.