

Date Completed: _____
Mentor Initials: _____

A mentor can change everything.

Subject–Verb Agreement

1. The Amazon rainforest, one of the world’s biggest forests, are full of exotic animals.
A) NO CHANGE
B) is
C) have been
D) were
2. The tourists on the hill has seen toucans high up in the trees.
A) NO CHANGE
B) see
C) sees
D) have saw
3. The green iguana of Central and South America blend in with the foliage to hide from predators.
A) NO CHANGE
B) blending
C) has blent
D) blends
4. Up above, a family of sloths crawl slowly along the branches.
A) NO CHANGE
B) crawls
C) are crawling
D) crawling.
5. Baskets of grass is often used in various Native American communities, both for practical use and art.
A) NO CHANGE
B) is being
C) are
D) has been
6. Groups of macaws flocks together over the rainforest canopy.
A) NO CHANGE
B) flock
C) flocking
D) flocks
7. Jaguars has crept through the jungle as they search for prey.
A) NO CHANGE
B) does creep
C) creep
D) creeps

8. The vibrant dart frog ward off predators with its aposematic colors.
 - A) NO CHANGE
 - B) has wards
 - C) warding
 - D) wards

9. The Kinkajou, a relative of raccoons, has tails designed to grip branches while climbing.
 - A) NO CHANGE
 - B) have
 - C) having
 - D) is having

10. Swinging from the trees were a mother tamarin as she carried her baby on her back.
 - A) NO CHANGE
 - B) was
 - C) have been
 - D) are

11. Ancient stories, such as the heroic Greek epic The Iliad, has been long cherished throughout history and are still relevant today.
 - A) NO CHANGE
 - B) was
 - C) have been
 - D) is