La MaMa presents
as Part of the La MaMa Moves! Dance Festival in association with the
New York Arab Festival
Special program Curated by Adham Hafez

Shared Program:
Leyya Mona Tawil/Lime Rickey International and Nora Alami, Jadd Tank

New York Arab Festival (NYAF) was established in 2022 to celebrate Arab American Heritage Month, and to fight the erasure of Arab and Arab American identities from New York City, a place that Arabs have called home for over three centuries. NYAF is a multidisciplinary festival of art, culture, design, food, philosophy, and intersecting industries. It programs artists from the entire Arabic-speaking region, the Arab diaspora, and Arab American artists, particularly artists working and living in New York City. Founded by Arab, American and Arab American artists, curators and cultural producers Adham Hafez, Adam Kucharski, Cindy Sibilsky, Marwa Seoudi and partners. This shared dance program is curated by Adham Hafez, the artistic director of New York Arab Festival. The program is co-produced and powered by Wizara, a creative studio for performance, digital art and urban practice.

Co-produced by ELIXIR / Arab.AMP

Malayeen Voices is presented in tandem with the interactive audio project MALAYEEN.SPACE (https://malayeen.space/). This web-based project invites you to sing - and immediately transforms your song based on your unique answers about time, origin and the subject of your diasporic experience. MALAYEEN.SPACE, conceived and designed by Tawil, was developed in collaboration with Andrej Hrončo (code/design) and debuted with funding from the British Council in 2021. Visit the site anytime to experiment or contribute to the community-generated archive!

The shared evening runs 70 minutes

The show runs 25 minutes, followed by a brief intermission
Leyya Mona Tawil [Lime Rickey International] is an artist working with sound, performance, and hybrid transmissions. Tawil is a Syrian, Palestinian, American engaged in the world as such. Her work has been presented throughout the US, Europe and the Arab region. Tawil was the 2020 ISSUE Project Room Suzanne Fiol Curatorial Fellow for her NOMADIC SIGNALS series, which continues into 2023. Her work Lime Rickey International’s Future Faith, commissioned by Abrons Arts Center (NYC) and the KONE Foundation (Helsinki), was nominated for a 2019 “Bessies” Award in Music (NYC). Recent residencies and productions include Wysing Art Centre/British Council (UK), Sharjah Art Foundation’s Tarek Atoui Sound Residency (UAE), The Poetry Project (NYC), JAM3A Festival (Detroit), TBA:22 (Portland) and Yucca Valley Material Lab’s Music Residency Program. Tawil is the director of ELIXIR 501c3, TAC Temescal Art Center (Oakland) and the Arab.AMP platform.

Shana Crawford is entangled in dance as a lighting designer, producer and dancer. Her work in all forms forges structures for support and celebration. She collaborates with Lime Rickey Intl, Jessie Young, Juliana May, jaamil olawale kosoko, Laurie Berg, La Mechanica Popular, Madeline Best, marion spencer, Stephanie Acosta, and Yanan Yu, among others. You can find her as the TD at the Chocolate Factory Theater, producer of LMCC’s River to River Festival and co-organizer with AUNTS, Shana orchestrates the Sometimes Together group and her work has been shared in NYC, MN, VT, HA, PA, MA, Italy and Spain. see more at sortofhere.com

Special thanks to Adham Hafez for a lifetime of adventures, and to the NYAF and La Mama Moves team!

Lime Rickey International’s Malayeen project has received support from the British Council (London), Wysing Art Center (Cambridge), Arab American National Museum (Dearborn), the City of Oakland Cultural Funding Program and the California Arts Council.

3rd Body: Simulations Ø & II

Created and performed by Nora Alami and Jadd Tank
Lighting Design: Izzy Olgaard
Sound Score: “Enta Omri” by Oum Kalthoum;
“Blended” by KiosErAw; “Bacid” by Dizzy Davis, “Rabbi”
by Khansa + Etyen

3rd Body is a play about the Other.
3rd Body is told through dance.
3rd Body navigates experiences of being Arab,
As told by Arabs,
Who were told about their Arab-ism
By Others.

Message from the creators: What you are seeing today are two of a hundred or so simulations inspired by the philosophical writing of Jean Baudrillard’s “Simulacra Simulacrum”. With Simulations Ø & II, we bring to life two distinct and imaginative simulations (think: mirages) that blur the lines between reality and fantasy.

Feel free to receive it all as is, feel free to let it land on you, feel free to unclench your anus.
Nora Alami & Jadd Tank are co-directors and creators of “3rd Body”. Carving their place in the creative economy as performers, directors, and creative producers - they joined collaborative forces in 2018 while performing as featured choreographers in the Focus on Mediterranean Choreography series in Italy. With Jadd Tank based in Houston and Nora Alami based in Brooklyn, it is important to them both that the development of this work takes place in both locations. Being 3rd Culture Kids themselves, they believe in the importance of bridging between various dance communities and industries that otherwise may not have connected.

Jadd Tank’s passion for choreography and dance lies in the exploration of boundless possibilities in which objects, bodies and events relate to each other: the spaces we create and the identities that spaces create for us. Nurtured by the cultural intersection of Lebanese and Midwestern traditions, Jadd approaches contemporary performance art and creation with an aesthetic that reflects a versatile mélange – Mediterranean culture, dramaturgy, architecture and postmodern movement techniques. Jadd Tank’s recent work includes Glimpses of a Future by Yaraqa (as a creative producer, choreographer, and performer) - now available on Netflix - and the digital videos at the Dubai World EXPO 2021 Lebanese Pavilion (as a choreographer and product design lead).

In addition to touring and performing internationally for award winning choreographers such as Michelle Ellsworth, Alias Guilherme Botelho and Maqamat Dance Theater, Jadd has choreographed for stage and film including director Susan Youssef’s feature film Marjoun & The Flying Headscarf (2021 Academy Award Consideration), Music videos of Vladimir Kurumilian & Mashrou’ Leila, and the digital works of Design House T Sakhi and Dubai-based director Dei El-Ayoubi.

Jadd is a Creative Producer and is currently the Product Design Lead at Lebanon-based Social Enterprise YARAQA. See more of his work at www.jaddtank.com  IG: @jadd_tank

Nora Alami is a Moroccan dance artist and creative producer living in Brooklyn. Her work builds performative contexts that investigate the embodied and contradictory experiences of our chosen and inherited identities. In flux between fluidity, tension, awkwardness, and discomfort, Nora presents evocations that are dramaturgical, conceptual, and in ritual. Her tools: radical acts of permission-giving, intentional displacement of cultural vantage points, and multidisciplinarity braiding.
Her choreography has been presented at Danspace Project’s DraftWork series, Triskelion Arts, Houston Metropolitan Dance Center, Center for Performance Research, New York Live Arts, International Center of Photography, pOnderosa, Colorado College, and Movement Research at Judson Church. She has performed at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, River to River Festival, and toured internationally with Jadd Tank at the 2018 Focus on Mediterranean Choreography platform in Castiglioncello and Spoleto, Italy.

She has been awarded the Alliance for Artist Communities’ Diversity + Leadership Fellowship, the New York Live Arts Fresh Tracks Choreographic Residency, and Miguel Gutierrez’s Landing 2.0. She has been awarded the 2021 JACK Residency, 2021 BRIClab: Performing Arts Residency Artist, 2021 Rest and Restore Residency at The Petronio Center, and 2022 Resident Artist at Triskelion Arts. She was recently invited to attend the Arab Arts Focus and Downtown-Contemporary Arts Festival in Cairo as a delegate of Movement Research’s Global Practice Sharing Program. Currently, Nora joyously collaborates as a creative producer with Jasmine Hearn and is on the Steering Committee for FAILSPACE. IG: @noralami

Special thanks to all those who have supported us near and far throughout our 3rd Body journey. To our family and friends for listening to us talk about 3rd Body over the past three years, to the audience in Castiglioncello, Italy for giving us a standing ovation during our 2018 “Bourgeois-Z” performance which catapulted us to create a performance about “Arab”-ness, to all those out there who don’t identity as anything other than tertiary cultures and subcultures and sub, subcultures.

Thank you to the entire La MaMa Moves! Festival Production team and New York Arab Festival team.

A special thank you to Paul Cassange, Nick Welna, Romy Assouad, YARAQA, Mo Khansa, + Cottonmouth Music.

The development of 3rd Body has received residency support from JACK, BRIClab Performing Arts Residency, Houston Metropolitan Dance Center, The Petronio Center and funding support from the New York City Artist Corps and 3rd Body Kickstarter 2022 Contributors. Thank you to each of you.

The 18th season of the La MaMa Moves! Dance Festival has been made possible with public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council; New York State Council on the Arts with the support of the Governor and the New York State Legislature; Howard Gilman Foundation; Mertz Gilmore Foundation; the Harkness Foundation for Dance; Mellon Foundation; the Jerome Robbins Foundation; and the Shubert Foundation.
A full program with information on this production can be found on the Shared Program: Nora Alami, Jadd Tank, Leyya Mona Tawil/Lime Rickey International page of the La MaMa website.

In addition you can scan the QR code Poster located in the theatre lobby for access to the digital program.
La MaMa’s historic, landmark building at 74 East 4th Street is undergoing an urgently needed complete renovation and restoration to preserve the historic façade, create building-wide ADA accessibility, and provide much needed performance, exhibition and community space for decades to come.

La MaMa, founded by Ellen Stewart in 1961, has been on east 4th Street since 1967. La MaMa embraces every person in its community and is legendary as the place where new artists of all nations, cultures, races, and identities are given opportunities. It is the place where art begins.
