Elements Collection: Plus

Ultra-slim, versatile sleeve for grab and go protection

Ramp up your style and versatility with an affordable case that offers more protection than neoprene. Constructed of EVA and EPE foam, the Elements Plus sleeve shields your device from every day accidents in an ultra-slim and lightweight package. Crafted with our Scotchgard coated fabric to prevent soiling and moisture, your device is protected from the elements. Made to go wherever you go, this case can easily be carried on its own (with included, adjustable shoulder strap) or slipped into your favorite bag. The front zippered pocket is ideal for holding chargers and other accessories. Whether for work, school, or play, the Elements Plus sleeve provides the basic protection your devices need at an incredible value.
