

Clarence Huntley

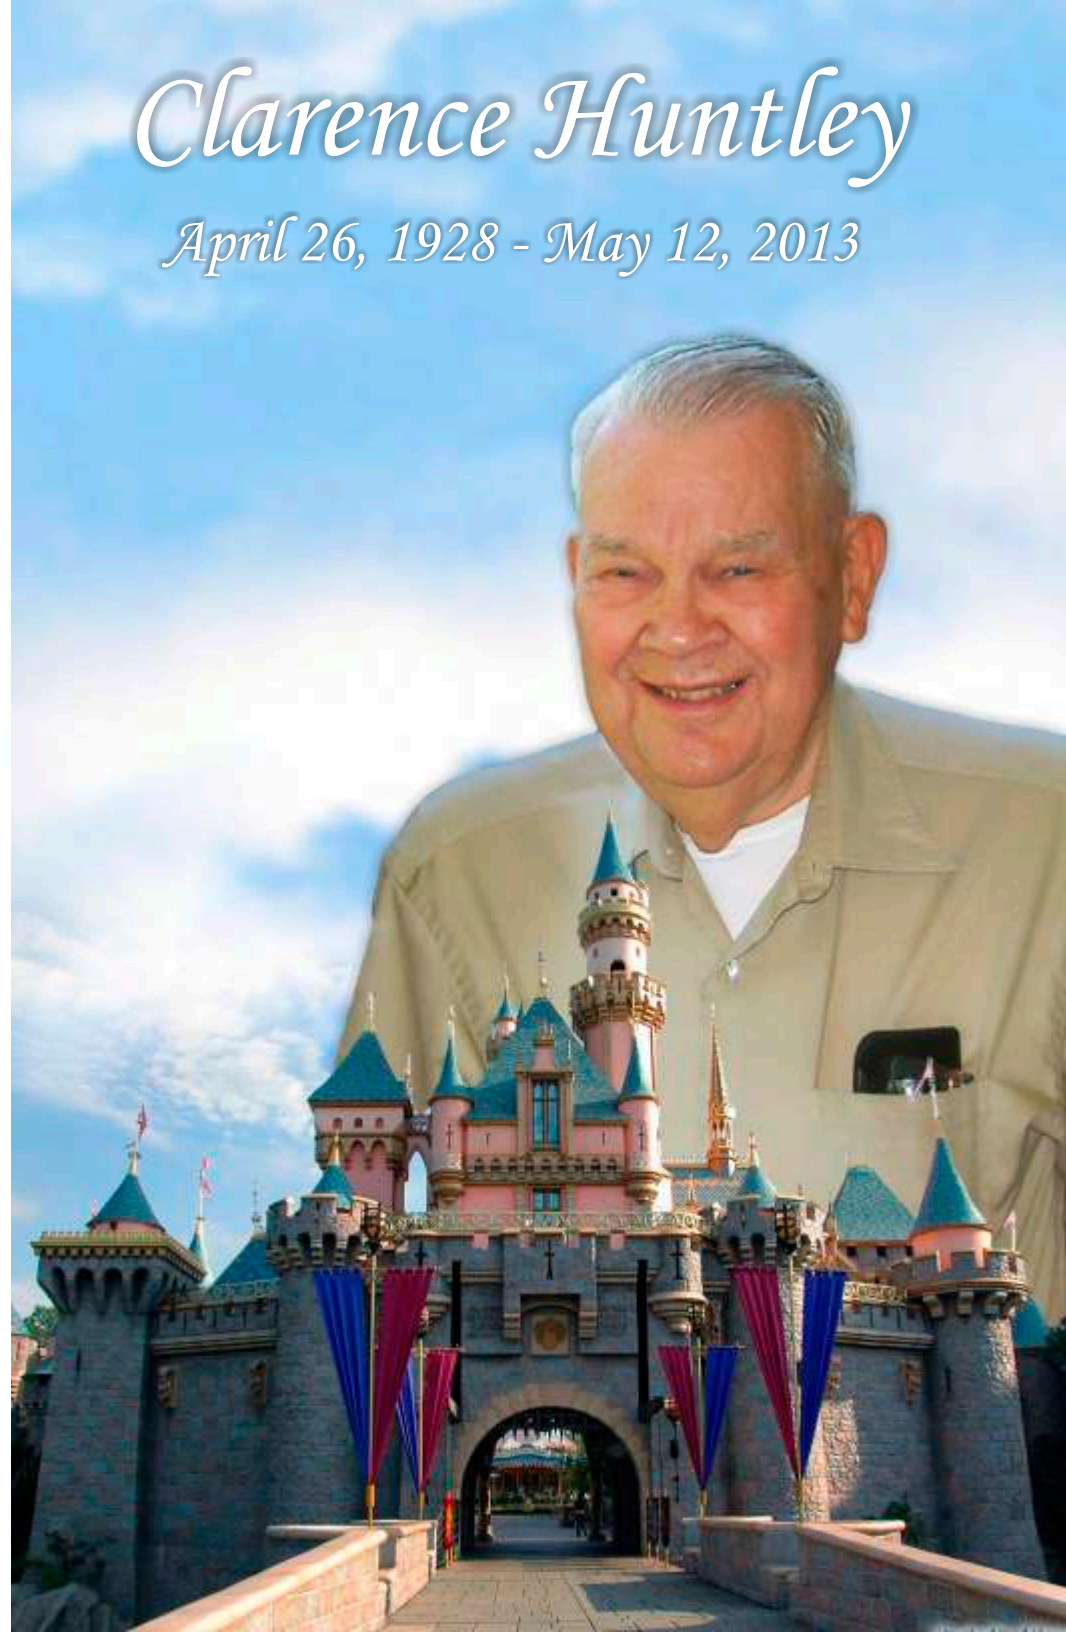

April 26, 1928 - May 12, 2013

Clarence W. Huntley, 85, of Scottsdale, Arizona, stepped over into heaven on Tuesday morning, May 12, 2013.

Clarence was born on April 26, 1928 to Albert and Signe Huntley of Cheyenne, Wyoming. Upon his high school graduation, he moved to San Diego for 3 years to serve in the United States Marine Corp as a Master Sergeant radio instructor. Motivated by a love for problem-solving and learning, he earned both a Bachelor's and Master's degree in electrical engineering from the University of Wyoming; graduating in 1957. Career opportunities led him to several locations in Nebraska, and ultimately to Scottsdale, Arizona via Tucson. He retired in 2010, after working 25 years for General Dynamics where he designed power supplies for the United States Space Program.

Clarence was best characterized by his selfless giving, as well as his dedication to Gideon's International; he loved God! He is preceded in death by his parents, his older sister Mildred, and his oldest brother Al. He is survived by his wife, Susan (Gladys Wake) of Newcastle, Wyoming, his brother John Huntley of Costa Mesa, California, and his 3 daughters: Lindy Lorenger of Las Vegas, Nevada; Dr. Charlene Martin (and spouse, Dr. Rinne Martin) of Tulsa, Oklahoma; and Dr. Julie Huntley of San Diego, California.

But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

~ 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14
