

Marge Darrington

Marjorie W. Darrington, age 84, passed away on October 31, 2013 at Westview Health Care Center in Sheridan, Wyoming.

Marge was born Marjorie Willeen Morrow on August 21, 1929 in Prairie Grove, Arkansas, to Archie and Ada Morrow. Marge studied to be a nurse in college, and for 14 years worked as an LPN at the United States Air Force Academy Hospital in Colorado Springs, CO.

Marge married Ed Darrington on May 1, 1978 in Maui, Hawaii, where they spent their honeymoon. When Ed's job with Firestone presented the opportunity in June of 1979, Marge and Ed moved from Denver to Sheridan, Wyoming. Marge was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Sheridan and enjoyed many hobbies including sewing, knitting, needlepoint, china painting, cooking, and travel. Following a severe stroke in 1996, Marge moved to Westview Health Care Center in Sheridan. Marge became Westview's longest resident and came to love her caregivers and fellow residents as family. Preceding Marge in death were both of her parents; her husband Ed Darrington; her son, Jerry Whitmire; her brother, Melvin Morrow; sister, Evelyn Donley; and niece, Janette Harrison.

Marge is survived by her sister Sylvia Hodges of Salinas, California; her son, Bill Whitmire; her step children - Eva Darrington of Denver, Allen Darrington and his wife Lori, and 3 step grandchildren - Olivia, Emma, and Everett, of Littleton, CO.

Gone From My Sight

by Henry Van Dyke

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship, at my side, spreads her white sails to the moving breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until, at length, she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, "There, she is gone"

Gone where?

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast, hull and spar as she was when she left my side.
And, she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me -- not in her.
And, just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"

And that is dying..
