"I Am Always There"

There should be no fear, for I am Here.

When I went, I didn't go far for I am right there, in your heart.

With the wings of a hero, in the presence of God.

I am the brightest star, in the night abroad
For now I am the sun, to keep you warm and let it be known, that heaven is my home.

Though it's time for me to travel here,
but always know, that I am near.

As I laugh with the angels far above,
there are no fears, only love.

If you need me, call, and I will come,
for all Gods work is never done

Until we meet again, cherish all we shared,
and please know that I always cared.

Smile each and every day, for I am with you in every way,
and remember, do not fear, for I am always there.

~Christina Rosalez

Don't Grieve for me because now,
I soar on an angels wing that has now set me free.

God called for me to leave it all, I heard him call so I turned my back and left it all.

I wish I could of stayed another day
to laugh and smile with all of you.

Don't cry for me because I have been set free.

Look at the mountains and trees and always remember me.

If my leaving has left you gray, we will all be together some day.

~Rudy Rosalez
