

Annie Drown

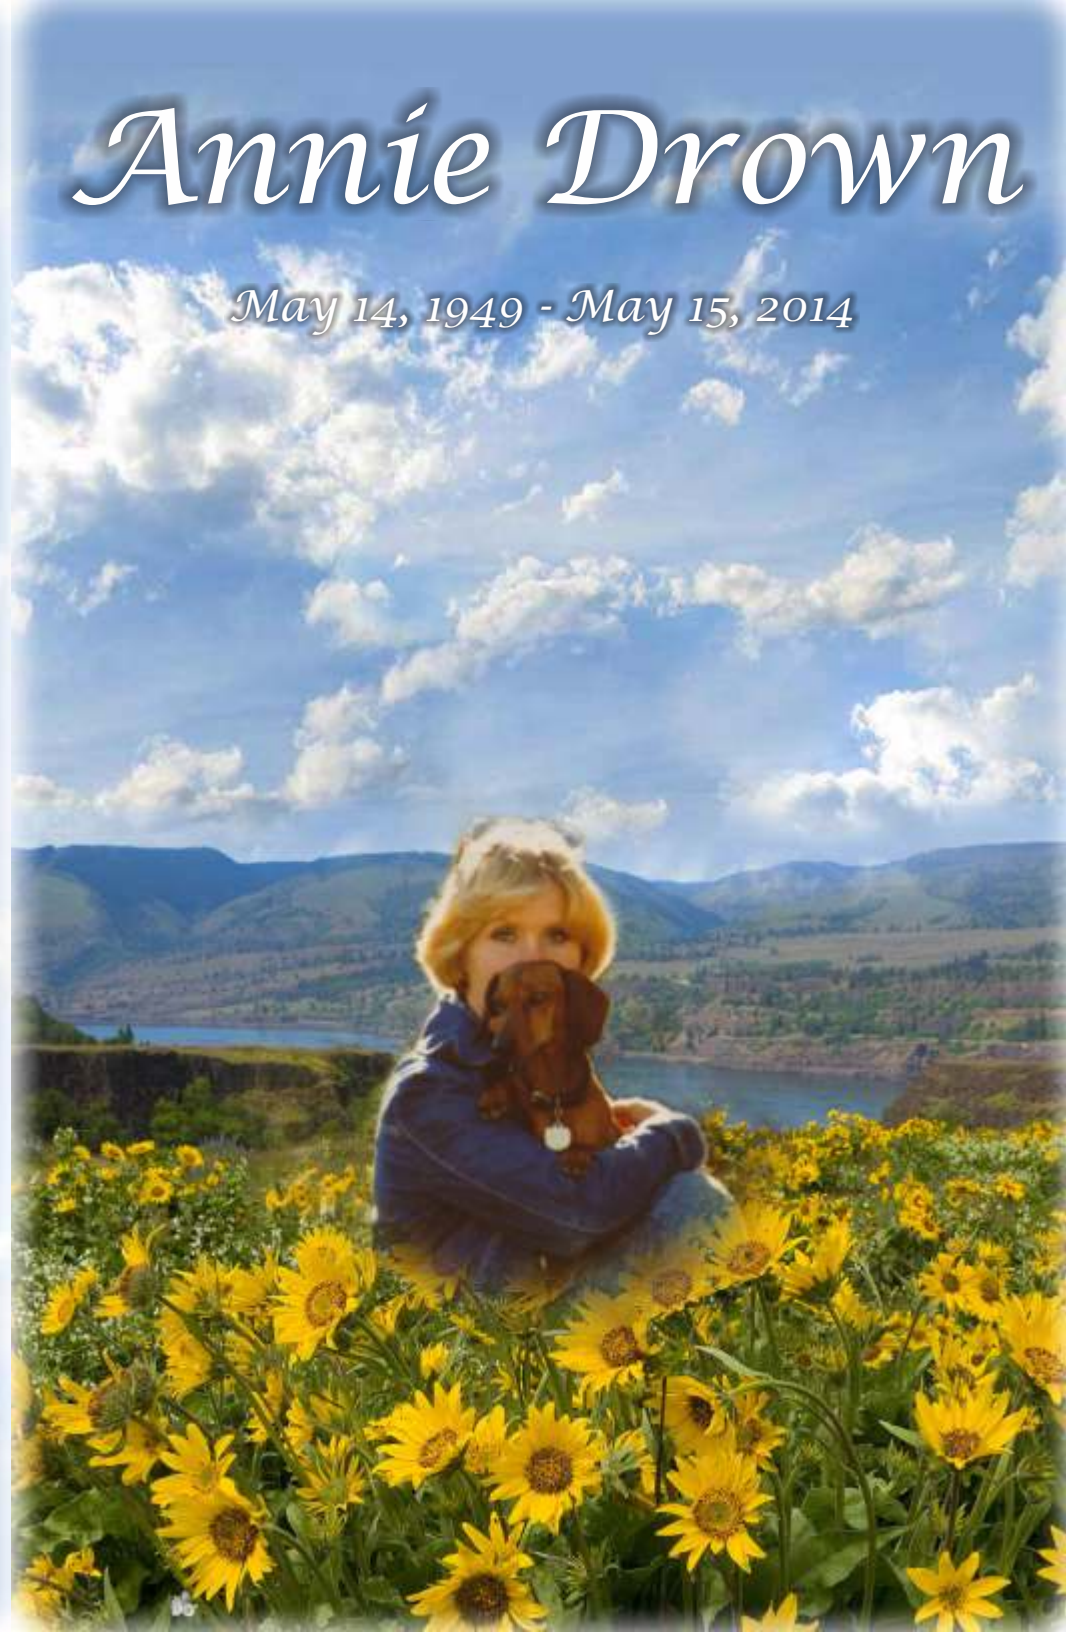

May 14, 1949 - May 15, 2014

Annie Drown, 65, passed away May 15th in her Sheridan home. Annie was born May 14th, 1949 in Sheridan, Wyoming to Wilhelm "Bill" Haratyk and Libby (Yalowizer) Haratyk.

Annie married Michael Drown February 2nd, 1985. Annie enjoyed gardening and being out in the sun. She enjoyed home decorating and re-arranging the furniture in her home. Annie loved garage sales and was a die hard Denver Broncos fan. She enjoyed the company of her Dachshunds, and spoiled them as if they were her children. Annie was the center of all family gatherings, and never let anyone leave hungry. She was beautiful, honest, kind, funny, and will be greatly missed by those who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Annie was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother Benny Haratyk. She is survived by her husband Michael, daughter Michaela, Sisters Linda Little, Angie Armstrong, Teresa Davidson and Brother Bill Haratyk, as well as numerous grand dogs, nieces and nephews.
