

In Loving Memory Of Jeff Gorzalka

*Life is short, so make it worthwhile.
Don't spend time grieving, just spend it with a smile.*

Jeff Gorzalka passed away peacefully at his home on Tuesday, March 3, 2015 at the age of 57.

He was born on December 8, 1957, to Alois James and Frances Elaine (Pinder) Gorzalka.

Jeff enjoyed volunteering at CHAPS. He loved all the horses and knew everyone of them by name. He'd even tell you about each of their different personalities and about what kind of mood they'd been in. The one thing Jeff let everyone know was just how much those horses helped him overcome some of life's many struggles. He happily shared about how they helped not only build his self-confidence, but also his self-worth.

The real loves of his life were his two grandchildren, Zander and Lawrence. He'd just light up whenever he shared stories about them.

Jeff was preceded in death by his mother, Frances, and his grandparents, Mary (Kobielusz) Dolinar and John and Anna (Sikora) Gorzalka. He is survived by his sons, David and Justin (Jenna), his father, Alois Gorzalka, his siblings, Nancy Reinke (Dan Rederth), Jim (Dana) Gorzalka and Natalie (Kelly) Peabody, his grandchildren, Zander Gene and Lawrence Alois Gorzalka, and his four nieces and two nephews. He is also survived by an endless list of cousins, all of whom he cared for deeply.

Angels In the Stars

God saw I was getting tired,
As He put His arms around me.
And whispered come with me.

There is a place for you in heaven,
Where there is no suffering and no pain.
All you have to do is look up to the sky,
And know that you will see me.

As I am an angel in the stars,
What a great place to be.
I am an angel of God and a
Sparkle I shall be.

Know that I'm watching over you,
Just look up and see.
I'm looking watching over you.
Please don't be sad for me.

I'm your angel in the stars,
Where I am happy now,
You will see, And one day you will be with me...
