God's Finger

God's finger touched her and she slipped away
 From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day:
 God saw the road was getting rough,
 The hills were hard to climb;
 He gently closed his weary eyes,
 And whispered, "Peace be thine."
 To a beautiful garden this friend has gone,

To a land of perfect rest:
 Though she is gone she still lives on
 In the garden of memory.

Death is only an old door
 Set in a garden wall.
 On quiet hinges it gives at dust,
 When the thrushes call.

Along the lintel are green leaves,
 Beyond the light lies still:
 Very weary and willing feet
 Go over that sill.

There is nothing to trouble any heart,
 Nothing to hurt at all.
 Death is only an old door
 In a garden wall.
