

In Loving Memory Of Dorothy Taylor

Dorothy Caroline Hinton Taylor passed away at home on March 18, 2016 at the age of 83. She was born April 10th, 1932 in Stockville, Nebraska. She was born to Avery Hinton and Ona Knight Hinton. She graduated from high school in Penrose, Colorado in 1950. She married Marvin Leroy Taylor June 30, 1950 and they had three sons. She spent most of her life working side by side with Marvin in their ranching profession. Marvin said many times she was his number one ranch hand, housekeeper, partner and best friend. She enjoyed crocheting and was an expert seamstress, sewing Marvin and the boys shirts. She enjoyed reading, doing puzzles and playing solitaire. She loved watching her family grow and enjoyed her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved the evenings where she and Marvin sat outside enjoying mother nature. She and Marvin raised registered quarter horses.

She is survived by three sons, Delbert, Stanley (Karen) and Allen (Jo Ann), five grandchildren: Tamara (Dennis) Carbajal, Trudy (Chris) Oelrichs, Bart (Crystal) Taylor, Tracy Taylor and Jason (Brandy) Taylor and eight great grandchildren: Taj Allen Taylor, Samantha and Ryan Taylor, Connor Taylor, Sydney and Roman Carbajal, and Dalton and Preston Oelrichs.

Dorothy was the third youngest in the Hinton family of 14 children. Dorothy was a wonderful cook. She spent one summer cooking for a catering company. At home she cooked for many hay crews and branding crews. She loved to cook and fed anyone who was hungry. She never knew the word no.

She was a wonderful, wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend. She was beloved and will be missed by many.

If You Could See Where I Have Gone

If you could see where I have gone, The beauty of this place,
And how it feels to know you're home, To see the Saviors' face.
To awake in peace and know no fear, just joy beyond compare.
While still on earth, you miss me yet, you wouldn't want me there,
If you could see where I have gone.

If you could see where I have gone, had made the trip with me, You'd know I didn't go alone. The Savior came with me. When I awoke, He was by my side, and reached out his hand to me, Said, "Hurry Child you're going home to a grand and glorious land, Don't worry over those you love, for I'm not just with you, I am yet with those you love at home, and they'll long to be here too."

If you could see where I have gone,
and see what I've been shown, You'd marvel at the care of God,
His hand on every life, And realize he really cares, and bears with you each strife, And that he weeps when one is lost. His heart is filled with pain, But oh! the joy when one comes home, a child at home again.

If you could see where I have gone, could stay awhile with me, Could share the things that God has made, to grave eternity.
But, No! You could never leave, once Heavens' joy you'd known,
You couldn't bare to walk earth's paths, once Heaven was your home.

If you could see where I have gone, you'd know we'll meet someday,
And though I'm parted from you now, I am just away.

So, thank you family, thank you friends for living for the Lord,
For teaching me to love Him, secure in every way,
I'm waiting here at Heaven's door,
to greet you all some day.
