

Together Again...

“I had the best so don't look at the rest.”

Margaret Anne “Peggy” Kethman, 88, of Sheridan, passed away on Saturday, January 7, 2017, at her son's residence. Peggy was born December 29, 1928, in Big Horn, WY, to Catherine (Nourse) and John Mills. She was married to Clarence Dewey Kethman.

During the Vietnam war, Peggy packaged brownies and novels and sent them to soldiers. She volunteered at the VA for 25 years. She took care of veterans by taking cookies, coffee and juice to them on Sunday mornings. She was a precinct officer for Sheridan County Voting. Peggy loved gardening and she especially enjoyed spending time with her family.

Peggy was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Dewey, and three sisters, Helen, Jean and Marge; a brother, John; son, Larry; daughter, Kae and great-granddaughter, Miley. She is survived by sons, James “Jim” (Marty) and David (Lisa) Kethman, both of Sheridan, WY and grandchildren, Angie, David, Cathy, Sarah, Justin, Josh, Chelsea, Eli, Jake and Staci Kethman and sixteen great-grandchildren.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.
