

Many of us would put our faith and family first as to what is important to us. But whether we define family, as our immediate blood relatives or friends that become chosen, we know that even though the seasons may come and go, our family and friends last forever and cherished memories are made for a lifetime.

Jeanne Carmen McKinney Goodman, 86, of Sheridan passed away on June 21, 2018.

Jeanne was born March 14, 1932 in Sheridan, Wyoming to Esther (Johns) and Gerald McKinney. She grew up in Sheridan, graduating from Sheridan High School in 1950. She married Kenneth (Babe) Goodman on September 15, 1951, and together they had four children, Tannya, Karl, Willie and Casey. Throughout the years, she was a 4-H leader helping with demonstrations, a Cub Scout Den Mother and a life member of the PTA. She went to work as a nursing assistant at the Sheridan VA Medical Center, later retiring to care for her mother. She was a member of the First Christian Church and the Big Horn Historical Society. She enjoyed the women's group at church, her monthly luncheons with the Red Hat Society and Class of 1950, and especially her time spent with the "Fat Ladies" and her Thursday morning coffee gals. She enjoyed reading, crocheting and family genealogy, but most of all, she loved kids and the time she was able to spend with them. Jeanne spent many of her days with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren creating priceless memories.

Jeanne was preceded in death by her parents, younger sister Jodie Ann, and daughter, Tannya. She is survived by sons, Karl, Willie, and Casey (Susan); grandson Jacob Goodman (Emily Johnson); granddaughters Brandi (John) Clifton and Carissa Goodman (Christopher Rasmussen); and great-grandsons Colby Clifton and Garrett Clifton.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me;*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me,
I know you will miss me too;*

*And when I thought of worldly things
I might miss tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did
My heart was filled with sorrow.*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right there, in your heart.*

Missed But Never Forgotten...
