

In Loving Memory Of
Pete Frith

*Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together,
all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you,
a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly
as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments,
you will never be apart
And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.*

IRISH BLESSING

May the sun shine, all day long,
everything go right, and nothing wrong.
May those you love bring love back to you,
and may all the wishes you wish come true!

May your blessings outnumber
The shamrocks that grow.
And may trouble avoid you
Wherever you go.

May happiness often enter your gate and stay very late.

May pleasure walk with you;
May luck smile upon you; and
May joy be at home in your heart.
May the road rise to meet you,
May the wind be always at your back,
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
The rains fall soft upon your fields and,
Until we meet again,

May God hold you in the palm of His hand.
