

A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today;
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

A reception at the church following the interment.

On Saturday, August 21, 2021, Janiece Renee (Ingalls) George, loving wife, mother of 3 children, step-mother of 2, grandmother of 11, passed away at the age of 54 after battling Pancreatic Cancer for over a year.

Janiece was born on December 7, 1966 in Sheridan, WY to Donald and Shirleyann (Wham) Ingalls. On December 4, 1999, she married James “Pat” George and gained 2 bonus sons, BJ and Scott George. Together they raised her 3 sons, Hunter, Nicholas, and Troy Wohlers. Her professional life involved years of nursing before a latex allergy freed her to chase her passions. She had a great love for photography and spent many years developing photos in her community before eventually retiring to become a full-time Grandma. Her creativity and vivid imagination is evidenced in all of the art she created from the floor-to-ceiling murals adorning the walls in her home, to the countless crochet blankets and toys she made for her grandchildren. Traditions in the kitchen are among her legacy as well. Making cinnamon rolls or homemade pizzas for her growing boys, pasta from scratch for chicken noodle soup, and her grandma’s pineapple cookies which she passed on to her granddaughters, are only a few notable examples—nobody left mom’s house hungry! She had an infectious smile and a contagious laugh and could carry on a genuine conversation with anyone, friend or stranger. She loved to make people laugh, and she always told the best stories and jokes, complete with dramatic expressions. She will be dearly missed.

Janiece was preceded in death by her sister DawnAnne, Sister-in-Law Lisa Ingalls and father, Don Ingalls. She is survived by her mother, Shirleyann, her husband, Pat, her sons, Hunter (Allison), Nicholas (Christina), and Troy Wohlers, her step-sons, BJ and Scott (Tanya) George, her sister Jaclynne (Brent) Allred, her brothers James (Steff), Joseph (Billy), Jon, and Jeff Ingalls, and an extended family of grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
