

Strategy Consultant

About Scalene Group

Scalene is a fast-growing, specialist retail advisory and analytics business, named among the top 40 retail tech start-ups operating globally in Retail Week World Retail Congress' (RWRC) annual Discovery Report 2021.

Powering retail innovation, we provide strategy, process design and analytics services to help retailers optimise their performance and leverage data effectively in their day-to-day decision-making.

We partner with our clients to deliver tailored solutions that turn complex data into high value, easy to implement solutions on topics including range design & management, pricing & promotions, store format development, space optimisation, and customer insights.

We operate from offices in Melbourne, Sydney and London to support a growing number of leading retailers in Australia, Asia and Europe.

We have an ambitious growth agenda and are keen to expand our team with highly skilled and passionate individuals to help us continue to deliver great value for our clients and support delivery of our development plans.

About the Role

As a Strategy Consultant, you will help drive our growth by delivering successful client engagements and helping to develop and implement internal strategic initiatives. Your responsibilities will include:

- Lead delivery of projects with a high level of autonomy, while ensuring timely and high-quality client outcomes
- Engage with client teams across the organisation, ensuring trust and rapport is built to help create long term relationships
- Convert data and analytics outputs into simple, clear communication documents that effectively convey key messages to a wide range of stakeholders
- Coordinate with internal team members to ensure effective, on-time delivery of projects
- Build innovative, user-friendly analytics products and tools
- Help identify opportunities with potential to drive value both for our clients and Scalene Group going forward
- Propose, develop and lead streams of work to support Scalene's internal product development agenda

Who we are looking for

Scalene is seeking a candidate with the following skills and experience to join our London team on a full time, permanent basis:

- 2-4 years of top-tier strategy consulting experience (ideally including Retail exposure) and/or
- 3-5 years experience in an analyst or strategy role with a Retailer/FMCG
- Exceptional analytical and insight skills, comfortable in dealing with large datasets
- Advanced Excel and PowerPoint skills
- Familiarity with BI and reporting tools (e.g. Tableau/PowerBI, SQL, R/Python) is desirable
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Client focused mindset is a must
- Problem-solver with a flexible and adaptable approach