Children Under the Age of 16

Our Websites are not intended for children, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from visitors under the age of 16. If we learn that we have received personal information from someone under the age of 16, we will delete the information in accordance with applicable law.

Types of Information We Collect

The types of Personal Information we collect about you depend on your interactions with us and are described below.

Information You Provide to Us

We collect Personal Information that you provide to us. For example, we may collect Personal Information when you contact us, request information or other materials, fill out a form, respond to a survey, apply for an open career position, or otherwise communicate with us.

Depending on the context of your interactions with the Websites, the categories of Personal Information that we may collect about you include:

- Unique Identifiers that we can use to identify you as a unique individual, such as your name, telephone number, postal or email address, business phone numbers, business addresses, business email addresses, and a username and password.
- Demographic Information, which may include sensitive Personal Information about protected classifications, such as your gender.
- Professional and Educational Information related to your occupation, such as current and previous employers, your job title, and other information about the organization with which you are affiliated. You might also provide information about your education, degrees, fields of study, languages, professional memberships, qualifications, certifications, and other information commonly found on resumes in connection with job applications.
- Health Information related to your physical abilities to perform prospective job responsibilities in the employment context or requests for accommodations.
- Location Information, such as your city, state, and country.
- Payment Card and Bank Account Information to facilitate payment of invoices.

- Commercial Information pertaining to real estate acquisitions and onsite hunting leases and properties.
- Any other information that you choose to provide.

You can generally visit our Websites without providing us with Personal Information, though we may still collect Personal Information automatically as described in the following section.

For our websites that allow online payment, we use third party processors, currently WorldPay, to assist in securely processing your payment information. We do not store your payment information and do not control and are not responsible for the payment processors or their collection or use of your information. You may find out more information about how the payment processors store and use your payment information by accessing the payment processor's privacy policy.

Information We May Collect Automatically

We may automatically collect information from and about you when you interact with the Websites, which may include the following categories of data:

- Device and Connection Information, such as information about your internet connection, device used to access the Websites, your device's operating system, or your browser type.
- Interaction Information. We may automatically collection information about your interactions with the Websites, such as traffic data, content you view, features accessed, pages you view on the Websites, and search terms used.

We and third parties engaged on our behalf may use cookies and similar tracking technologies (collectively "Cookies") to collect information from and store information on your device when you use, access, or otherwise interact with the Websites. For information about how we use Cookies and the choices you may have, please see our Cookie Policy. We currently do not respond to "Do Not Track" signals. To learn more about "Do Not Track" signals, visit www.allaboutdnt.com.

Information We Collect from Other Sources

We may collect Personal Information from other sources, such as our business partners. We may obtain Personal Information about you when you provide that information to third party service providers for submission to us, such as through our job application portal. We may also receive information about you when you interact with our social media accounts. We may also collect information from publicly available sources, such as public social media profiles, publications, and other websites or materials available through search engines.

Cookie Policy

We use Cookies to gather information when you interact with our Websites and in email communications. Some tracking technologies help Crest maintain the security and functionality of its website, save your preferences, and assist with basic site functions. You can find more information about cookies and how they work here: <http://www.aboutcookies.org>. Some cookies we use are necessary to enable you to navigate the Website.

Your use of the Website will be deemed to be your consent to the placement of cookies on your computer or other device. If you prefer not to receive cookies, you can set your browser to either reject all cookies, to allow only “trusted” websites to set them, or to accept only those cookies from those sites you are currently on. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you use the Website. By using the Website, you agree that we can place cookies on your computer or device as explained above. However, you can control and manage cookies in various ways. See Choices About How We Use and Disclose Your Information for more information.

- Communications from the Company. If you do not wish to have your contact information used by Crest to promote our own or our affiliates' products or services, you can opt-out by sending us an email stating your request to privacy@crestoperations.com. If we have sent you a promotional email, you may send us a return email asking to be omitted from future email distributions or click on the "unsubscribe" link in the communication. This opt-out does not apply to information provided to the Crest as a result of a transaction.

Residents of certain states, such as California, may have additional Personal Information rights and choices. Please see Your State Privacy Rights for more information.

Third Party Services and Content

Our Websites may include integrated content or links to third party content. This Privacy Policy does not apply to those third party websites. You are encouraged to review the privacy policies of those third parties when accessing their materials.

Accessing and Correcting Your Information

You can send us an email at privacy@crestoperations.com to request access to, correct or delete any Personal Information that you have provided to us. We may not accommodate a request to change information if we believe the change would violate any law or legal requirement, cause the information to be incorrect, or if the information must be retained to effect performance of a contract. For information that can be deleted, deletions are typically complete within 90 days of the request.

Residents of certain states, such as California, may have additional Personal Information rights and choices. Please see Your State Privacy Rights for more information.

Your State Privacy Rights

State consumer privacy laws may provide their residents with additional rights regarding our use of their Personal Information. To learn more about California residents' privacy rights, visit our Privacy Notice to California Residents.

Data Security

We have implemented reasonable technical, administrative, and physical measures designed to secure your Personal Information from accidental loss and from unauthorized access, use, alteration, and disclosure. All information you provide to us is secured behind firewalls. Certain areas of the Websites also safeguard the transmission of data using Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology. To check the security of your connection, view the lower corner of your browser window as you place your order. If you see an unbroken key or a closed lock (depending on your browser), then SSL is active and the server is secure. You can also double-check by looking at the URL line of your browser. When accessing a secure server, the first characters of the site address will change from "http" to "https." Information that you provide to us is not secured during transmission unless the URL address contains "https".

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we do our best to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee the security of your Personal Information transmitted to our Websites. Any transmission of Personal Information is at your own risk. We are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy security measures contained on the Websites. If you were assigned a username and password for use on the Websites, do not share them with others.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

Crest reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove any portion of our Websites or these policies, in whole or in part, at any time. Changes to these policies will be effective when posted. The date the privacy policy was last revised is identified at the top of the page. You are responsible for periodically visiting our Websites and this privacy policy to check for any changes.
