Intimate Ceremony

Location : at the end of the hotel pontoon

Discover our Intimate Ceremony. It is a small wedding ceremony taking place on the deck of the resort.

As in Polynesian tradition, the couple is conducted, to the accompaniment of local song, to the Tahitian priest. The priest unites the couple in Tahitian language according to tradition and blesses them with sea water. They are christened with their Polynesian names on a Tapa wedding certificate. The priest then wraps the couple in a Tifaifai (Polynesian wedding quilt), as a symbol of their union before giving them a last benediction.

The ceremony includes :

- Master of ceremony (Polynesian Priest)
- Musician
- Three pareos to dress the couple
- Polynesian flower decoration
- Two flower necklaces and crowns
- Tifaifai (rented)
- Wedding certificate made of Tapa

In your bungalow after the ceremony :

- One bottle of French champagne
- Wedding cake

WEDDING CEREMONIES

Traditional Ceremony

Location : at the end of the hotel pontoon
Duration : 20 minutes

Make your dreams come true with our grand Tahitian wedding, taking place at the end of pontoon, a magic moment to share together.

For this romantic ceremony, dancers will escort you to the priest, who will preside over your union, accompanied by a traditional music group. After the priest purifies you with sea water, you are wrapped in a Tifaifai, the Polynesian wedding quilt, in the tradition of Tahitian royalty. The priest christens you with Polynesian names before presenting you with a wedding certificate made of Tapa. As the ceremony ends, Polynesian dancers perform a private dance show to celebrate your union.

While the celebration goes on, a bottle of French champagne and a wedding cake are delivered to your bungalow for you to enjoy after the ceremony, with a romantic setup of flowers on your bed.

The ceremony includes :

- Supervision of the Wedding Coordinator
- Master of Ceremony (Polynesian Priest)
- Polynesian musician trio and 4 dancers
- Flower decoration
- Three pareos to dress the couple
- Two crowns and two flower necklaces
- Tifaifai (rented)
- Wedding certificate made of Tapa

In your bungalow after the ceremony :

WEDDING CEREMONIES

Renewal of Vows Ceremony

Location : on the resort beach
Duration : 10 minutes

Renew your vows in the pure Polynesian tradition.

Your romantic ceremony will take place on the white sand beach. A traditional outrigger canoe takes the bride to the wedding ceremony as a "Arii Vahine" (Polynesian Queen), where the groom and the priest welcome her. The priest performs the ceremony, using sacred sea water. You then exchange flower necklaces & crowns as you exchange vows. Finally, you are wrapped with a Tifaifai, the traditional Polynesian wedding quilt, symbol of your union.

The final touches to this magic moment are a bottle of champagne and a wedding cake in the bungalow.

The ceremony includes :

- Master of the ceremony (Polynesian priest)
- Musician
- Three pareos to dress the couple
- Polynesian flower decoration
- Two flower necklaces and two crowns
- Tifaifai (rented)
- Wedding certificate made of Tapa

In your bungalow after the ceremony :

- One Bottle of French champagne
- Wedding cake
