Dear Joy

Many thanks for your letter regarding my Annual Report for 2015-16 which I presented to the panel on the 19th July 2016.

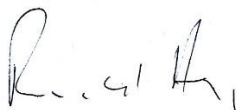

I have passed on your thanks to the Chief Constable, Mike Barton, for attending the meeting. Both the Chief Constable and I welcomed the praise which Panel Members gave to Durham Constabulary for their achievements.

I have appreciated all of the positive feedback and constructive challenge which I have received from the Panel over the past year, including their support for the public performance report which I introduced and have been presenting to the Panel on a quarterly basis.

In accordance with the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011, I trust you find my response satisfactory and I will now formally publish the Report and both our responses on my website.

I am grateful to the Panel, and I look forward to continuing to work together.

Yours sincerely

Ron Hogg
Police, Crime and Victims' Commissioner
