The Police & Crime Commissioner for Durham Decision Record Form

REQUEST: For PCC approval for funding of a bespoke Victim Care & Advice Module and the supporting hardware to allow the service provider's employees to have secure access to police systems.

Title: Victim Care & Advisory System Module and Access Hardware Devices

The Victim Care & Advice Module is an integral part of the Durham Police Red Sigma Information System.

An important part of the ongoing development of victim services has been the identification and recording of appropriate information pertinent to the victim's circumstances. This information will enable the very best assessment of a victim's needs to identify the right support to help them cope and recover from the impact of the crime.

In addition the system will be used to support the tracking of developments in respect of any offender related activities to help keep the victim updated or identify any further support that may be appropriate. The police have purchased hardware devices to facilitate the safe and secure access of the third party service provider' employees to the information that will support an effective needs assessment.

Decision: To fund the Victim Care & Advice Module and supporting hardware.
